ICNA-MAS Convention is the premier annual convention which attracts thousands of Muslim families and youth every year from all over North America. This annual convention is the perfect opportunity for your business and organization to reach out to a diverse population of Muslims. Islamic Circle of North America (ICNA) has been holding this convention every year since 1975.

ICNA-MAS Convention Attendance Last 5 years

We invite you to be part of this convention by advertising in the Program Guide. Thousands of copies of the ICNA-MAS Convention Program Guide are distributed to convention attendees and provide a perfect opportunity to communicate the message of your business or organization.

This convention invites a very committed and diverse group of individuals and families who strongly believe in building strong families, strong communities and a strong nation. Become part of this grass root effort which seeks to develop a better world for our future generation.
